

Contact information:

Scott Wehrli, Scott@ScottWehrli.com
630-357-1163

SCOTT WEHRLI (WUR-lee)
CANDIDATE FOR NAPERVILLE MAYOR – AGE 53
APRIL 4, 2023 CONSOLIDATED ELECTION

- ❖ Lifelong Naperville resident and product of school district 203 (NCHS). Grew up working in the family construction business after school and continued full-time while attending college.
- ❖ Has been a non-stop City of Naperville volunteer since he was twelve years old.
- ❖ Is Principal Owner and Secretary-Treasurer of Naperville based construction company with more than 200 employees.
- ❖ Has more than 32 years of sworn, local law enforcement experience and is a Lieutenant with the Naperville Park District Police (part-time).
- ❖ At 24 years old, Scott was appointed by Mayor Sam Macrane to be the youngest liquor commissioner in Naperville history. Since then, he has served the last 29 continuous years at the request of Mayors Pradel and Chirico and led the City's creation of proactive policy to curb liquor related nightlife crime.
- ❖ In 2006, Scott co-organized a group of business leaders to create community banks that specialized in local lending. (continued)

(continued from page 1)

They took the company public on NASDAQ in 2013 and merged with another NASDAQ traded peer in 2017 where Scott continues to serve as a bank board member. Now, with $12.5 billion dollars in assets, the company was recently ranked 52nd overall on Forbe's list of America's Best Banks.

- ❖ Scott is Chairman of the Board of Trustees at Marmion Academy in Aurora and is an 18-year member of the North Central College Board of Trustees (his alma mater).
- ❖ He has served the last 20 years on the Naperville Development Partnership (economic development) board including two years as Chairman.
- ❖ Scott is married to Lynda (25 years), a local real estate broker. They have two children: Sam, a 2022 United States Military Academy West Point graduate who is now serving as a Second Lieutenant in the US Army 82nd Airborne and Hope, a varsity volleyball student-athlete at Rhodes College in Memphis, Tennessee.